TO

Encourage the planting of Trees in Ireland, and to amend A.D. 1883.
the Laws relating thereto.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Trees Planting (Ireland) Act, Short title.
1883.

2. From and after the passing of this Act tenants of lands for statutory terms, and subject to statutory conditions under the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881, shall be entitled to claim and exercise the rights and privileges conferred by the statute passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend the laws for the encouragement of planting timber trees," in the same manner as if they had been such tenants for years as are in the first section of the said last-mentioned Act mentioned or referred to. Extension of 23 & 24
Geo. III.
c. 35.

3. Amongst the purposes for which the Treasury may authorise the Board of Works to advance from time to time out of any moneys in their hands to companies or occupiers of land under the provisions of the thirty-first section of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881, shall be comprised and included the planting of timber trees. Amendment of section 31
of Land Law (Ireland)
Act, 1881.
